<http://moodle.washington.edu>

The screenshot shows the Moodle interface for the course SON 103 Summer 2008. The top navigation bar includes the University of Washington logo, the course name 'UWMoodle ► SoN103', and a user login status: '[Amy Embree] You are logged in as Studious Student (Logout)'. The main content area is titled 'Weekly outline' and features the course title 'SON 103 Summer 2008' and 'School of Nursing UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON'. Below this, there are sections for 'Announcements', 'Syllabus', and 'E-Reserves'. A date range '23 June - 29 June' is displayed, followed by an introduction to the week's topics and assignments. There are two lists: 'Examples of Resources' (Course web page, PDF File, Word Document, Powerpoint Presentation, Excel File) and 'Examples of Activities' (Turn in an Assignment, Discussion Board (Forum), Quiz/Exam, Chat Room). The right sidebar contains a 'Calendar' showing June 2008 with due dates marked, 'Latest News' (No news has been posted yet), and 'Recent Activity' (Activity since Tuesday, 17 June 2008, 02:10 PM). The left sidebar has sections for 'Resources', 'Activities', 'People', and 'Administration'. Callouts provide additional context: 'Breadcrumbs navigation shows where you are' points to the course path; 'Access from any internet connection' points to the top bar; 'Log in with UW Net ID, create an online profile' points to the user status; 'Additional resources' points to the Resources list; 'See who is in the class' points to the People section; 'See grades from assignments' points to the Administration section; 'View current week or all' points to the date range; 'Calendar view of class due dates' points to the calendar; 'Instructor announcements and recent activity or changes since your last visit' points to the Announcements section; and 'Integrated assignment collection, quizzes, discussion boards, and more' points to the Examples of Activities section.
