

Benchmarks to Assess Outcomes of Students Who Complete the MN/MS Program
(Approved January, 2009)

- achievement of program goals as measured by the Scholarly Inquiry Scale (MN & MS) and Clinical Scale (MN only)
- graduation rate of 80% or higher in six years or less
- certification rates of 80% or higher for those programs leading to eligibility for certification
- employment rates of 80% or higher in the discipline, excluding those pursuing further study
- employer satisfaction with graduates as demonstrated by a score of 3 (moderate) or higher in evaluation of graduate achievement on the Colleague Evaluation Form
- student satisfaction with program as measured by a score of 3 (well) or higher in how well the program of study meet the graduate's educational goals on the End of Program Evaluation and Alumni Survey